

EMERGENCY/DISASTER MANAGEMENT - CERTIFICATE

EMER

The Emergency/Disaster Management Certificate is currently suspended and not accepting new students.

All campuses, evenings only

This fast-growing field presents opportunities for individuals who seek employment in various emergency management capacities. This program is based upon the Emergency Management Institute (EMI) for higher education and is designed to enhance the emergency disaster management skills and knowledge of police, fire service, hospital personnel, business, security personnel, risk managers, etc.

Courses in this certificate can be applied to the Associate degree in Emergency Management/Homeland Security. Learn about the associate degree (<https://catalog.ccri.edu/programs-study/health-sciences/emergency-management-homeland-security-as/>).

All applicants must have a high school diploma or GED® credential.

Note: Many courses require prerequisites and/or testing. See course descriptions for details (<https://catalog.ccri.edu/course-descriptions/>).

General Policies

See important general policies (<https://catalog.ccri.edu/programs-study/health-sciences/>) on the performance-based Health Sciences application process, academic progress, advanced placement, background check, CPR certification, health insurance, health records, reinstatement, transportation, uniforms, and equipment.

Requirements for Admission into the Emergency Management Program

1. Complete and submit a CCRI Application for Enrollment to General Studies.
2. Submit an official copy of high school or GED® transcript including graduation date or, if the applicant holds a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, the high school transcript may be waived; a college transcript must indicate completion and degree awarded.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be completed with a C or better.
- Check GPA requirements for progression in this program.

Certificate Requirements

Students must be accepted into the program before enrolling in any required courses.
